

VSbulletin 096 - UPDATE 3 - Cancellation of Jet Airways flights – Extended dates

Further to VSbulletins 084, 086, 090 and 091, we are saddened to hear that our codeshare partner Jet Airways (9W) has suspended its operations indefinitely; therefore, all Jet Airways flights globally have been cancelled.

This also means any customers who are booked to travel on a Virgin Atlantic-operated flight using a Jet Airways (589) ticket no longer hold a valid ticket to travel. We recommend that for these customers you contact Jet Airways <https://www.jetairways.com/Information/home.html> in the first instance for assistance.

We are offering customers traveling on Virgin Atlantic (932) itineraries that involve a Jet Airways (9W) flight booked and ticketed prior to April 18, 2019, the option to refund or rebook onto a flight on a later date at no extra charge.
