Virgin Atlantic VSbulletin 010 – UPDATE- Adverse Weather Disruption – Hurricane Irma

We need to let you know that we are monitoring the expected weather conditions caused by Hurricane Irma over Antigua (ANU), Havana (HAV) and Miami (MIA).

We have made the decision to cancel the VS33 LGWANU on 7 September 2017.

We are continuing to monitor the weather conditions, however for the most up to date information on any forthcoming disruptions, please visit our website.

Any customers travelling to, from or through ANU, HAV and MIA between 5 September and 14 September will have the option to re-book to a later date or re-route on any Virgin Atlantic operated flights.

Rebooking Policy:

1) Re-book for travel on or before 14 October 2017

- Rebook the same booking class on the new date if available
- If the original booking class is not available, re-book the next available booking class within the same cabin (no additional collection or change fee will be charged). Should a higher cabin be booked the customer will need to pay any additional fare and taxes.
- Only rebook on VS
- Update the SI field with the following information:
- SI VS INVOL DATE CHANGE DUE TO HURRICANE IRMA
SI FOC DATE CHANGE DUE TO HURRICANE IRMA

Please reissue tickets to include “INVOL DATE CHANGE DUE TO HURRICANE IRMA”. In the endorsement box and where supported precede the fare calculation with an “I-“.

2) Re-route for travel on or before 14 October 2017

- Rebook the same booking class on the new date/route if available until 14 October 2017
- If the original booking class is not available, re-book the next available booking class within the same cabin (no additional collection or change fee will be charged). Should a higher cabin be booked the customer will need to pay any additional fare and taxes.
